

CAMPER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

The staff of the day camp is committed to providing a safe and enjoyable experience for your child; however, campers are also responsible to assist in these efforts. Parents are responsible to make sure their child understands the guidelines below. You must review this CODE OF CONDUCT with your child!

BEHAVIOR

1. Campers must accept and get along with others. Put-downs, cuts, malicious teasing, practical jokes, etc. will not be tolerated from any camper.
2. Campers will be sensitive to others in terms of race, religion, physical characteristics, regional differences and language. Ethnic or religious slurs or jokes will not be used.
3. Campers must respect others and their property. Campers will refrain from touching others in any harmful or inappropriate way.
4. Campers will not use foul language.
5. Campers will follow directions the first time they are given. Most of our directions are for the safety of campers and second chances may be too late.

SAFETY

6. Campers must wear closed-toe/closed-heel shoes at all times. Campers must have one pair for land activities and another pair for water activities.
7. Campers must pay attention to their surroundings and use care in all activities.
8. Campers will adhere to all safety rules and regulations given for each activity he/she participates in while at camp.

GENERAL

9. Campers are expected to wear appropriate clothing.
10. Campers must inform staff if they are experiencing a problem with another camper or other issues. If we are not informed about a problem, we cannot stop the problem or assist the camper.
11. We expect all campers to have FUN at camp, but not at the expense of others.
12. Violation of the CODE OF CONDUCT can be grounds for automatic dismissal. Refunds are not given when a camper is dismissed from the program.

I have read the above CAMPER'S CODE OF CONDUCT. I agree to adhere to all of the above to ensure that my camp experience and the experience of other campers is a positive one. I understand that failure to adhere to these rules may result in my dismissal from the program.
